Scout Troop Holds Awards Presentation

Highlight of the October awards meeting of Boy Scout Troop 154 and Post 154X was the presentation of an Eagle Scout badge to Steve Nelson of 22630 Evalyn Ave. The award was made by Steve's former scoutmaster Albert Brett and Robert Horton, committee chairman of the post.

The Rev. Robert Dehn, First Baptist Church, gave both the invocation and benediction at the meeting held in South High Cafeteria. Other awards presented by the troop and post, each sponsored by the Kiwanis International, included:

Second class rank—Charles Gerhardt, James Hodnett, Larry Johnson, Del Rapier, James Weber and Allen Wightman.

First class rank—Charles Reanie, Billy Seckinger and David Winters.

Star—John Eskhart, Allen

Scout Troop 569

Boy Scout Troop 569 under the direction of John Allan, scoutmaster, held a court of honor at Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church.

Included on the program was the presentation of film on the scouts' golden Arrowhead hike, narrated by Allan. Assistant scoutmaster Perry Honsinger, patrol leader Robert Perkins and scoutmaster Richard Thursber of Troop 743 assisted on the hike.

Presentation of awards included golden Arrowhead medals and certificates to boys who participated in the hike. Five boys were initiated into the troop and received their tenderfoot badges. Second class, first class and star badges were awarded, also.

Gerhardt Jr., James Ellington, Chris Huey, Tim Parker, Eddie Vrana and George Watson.

Gold palm—Albert Brett.

Scout Troop 128

Girl Scouts of Troop 128 attended the senior Girl Scout encampment at Newport Dunes which included 1,700 girls from the Los Angeles area.

Activities during the three-day camp included song and program workshops, swimming, sailing, rowing and canoeing.

Scouts attending were Judy Bradford, Bonnie Dalton, Jackie Harmon, Mary Kane, Pat McVey, Connie Sudemeir, Cindy Wickers, Candy Voien, Dana Wolinsky, Janis Albright and guest Linda Scott.

Mrs. L. H. Voien, troop leader, was assisted by Mrs. Dalton and Mrs. McVey.

Chaplain Selected

Dr. John E. Cantelon, 4009 Merrill St., University of Southern California chaplain, will represent the university at the inauguration of Dr. Raymond M. Olson, president of California Lutheran College, Thousand Oaks, Sunday at 4 p.m.

CANCER CLUES... Cuyler Hammond Sc.D., and Mrs. Reed L. Pack, Centinela Valley-South Bay Epidemiology chairman for the American Cancer Society, discuss partial results of the area's fourth annual follow-up in research to determine cancer causes. Mrs. Pack reports thousands of local residents are voluntarily contributing time to the Epidemiology study. Hammond is national director for the American Cancer Society's statistical research section.

Mike's Thursday Mailbag
Dear Mike: Tell me what really happened at Debbie Reynolds' benefit party for The Thailians. I've read a few hints but I'd like to know the whole story. Did she really take a poke at Eddie Fisher?—Dean Blakey, Barrington, Ill.

Dear Dean: No, she merely pulled him offstage because he was imitating that old Chinese vaudeville act, On Too Long. Aside from that, the scandalous parts of the show were a series of stunts of Liz Taylor and Richard Burton, strung together like Liz's "TV Tour of London" and titled "Burton's Tour of Liz" and Bill (Jose Jimenez) Dana's equally lascivious takeoff on Liz and Richard in "Cleopatra." It probably would have been okay if Debbie and Eddie hadn't been there. But it was embarrassing, to the rest of us, to think that we were watching it right along with those two. The audience sympathy, for a change, was with Liz and Richard!

Dear Mike: Mind you, I'm a Presley fan through and through, and I guess I always will be, but wouldn't it be smart of his producers to put other big stars in his pictures for a change? I would like to see our Sir Swivel slug it out with a BIG female name for a change, you know, like Doris Day and Rock Hudson. What say?—Josephine DeVries, Sarasota, Fla.

Dear Josephine: Metro feels the same way. They're planning on teaming the No. One male pop record star with the No. One female pop-topper, Connie Francis.

Dear Sir: WHY can't Hollywood make movies like that fabulous "Tom Jones," with that very funny Albert Finney?—June Ray Fisher, Lynwood, Calif.

Dear June Ray: We're still tied down by the Production Code, and it's probably a good thing. I agree, the Finney film is funny, but honestly, now didn't you think it went 'way overboard with the vulgarity? Especially that sloppy-but-sexy eating scene between Joyce Redman and Finney? I'd be glad to hear from other readers who've seen it but first a word of warning: don't bring your Sunday school classes.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Why don't you write about the awards you receive and the parties thrown in your honor like the other Hollywood columnists do?—Savona Berger, Fort Dodge, Ia.

Dear Savona: I'm a reporter, not a status-seeker.

Dear Sir: I think Irene Ryan, who plays Granny in "The Beverly Hillbillies," is the funniest female alive. My wife says she's much younger than she appears to be. How old is she really?—Bernard L. Casieri, Detroit, Mich.

Dear Bernard: She's 53.

Dear Sir: What is Yves Montand doing now in the entertainment world? Will he bring his one-man show back to this country?—B. Taylor, Millbrae, Calif.

Dear B.: He's touring Europe now, while his wife, Simone Signoret, is having ulcers in Paris. For her sake, and in view of what happened when he made that movie with the late Marilyn Monroe, let's hope he stays home.

Dear Mike: Whatever happened to Neil Hamilton? I'm 60 and remember him well.—Kay Taylor, South Bend, Ind.

Dear Kay: Neil still acts but only as a sideline. The original "Arrow Collar Man" is in the real estate business here and just took a small acting job, as a sideline, with Jack Lemmon and Romy Schneider in "Good Neighbor Sam" at Columbia.

Dear Mike: What has become of the children of the late Mario Lanza? I understand his recordings are still on the best-seller lists. This is Wonderful. A voice of such magnitude should never be left unheard.—Mrs. K. P. Monar, Monterey, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Monar: His wife, Betty Hicks Lanza, as you probably know, followed him in death, so their four children, the eldest of whom is now 15, are being cared for by Mario's parents, Maria and Tony Cocozza. And the royalties from his records are coming in mighty handy.

(Mike Connolly welcomes all readers' questions, but due to the large volume of mail received, it may be some time before the answer to your question appears in his column.)
